ANNUAL RETURN ON THE SCOTTISH SOCIAL HOUSING CHARTER: A CONSULTATION

SEPTEMBER 2024

1. Introduction

During 2023, we consulted on the future of social housing regulation in Scotland and we published our revised Regulatory Framework in February 2024. The new Regulatory Framework came into effect on 1 April 2024.

During our consultation on the revised Regulatory Framework, we had proposed to develop and introduce to the Annual Return on the Charter (ARC) specific indicators on tenant and resident safety. We also proposed to develop appropriate monitoring of the effectiveness of landlords' approach to managing reports and instances of damp and mould. We also invited views on the continuing appropriateness of existing ARC indicators. We highlighted that we would bring forward revised indicators for the Energy Efficiency Standard for Social Housing (ESSH) when the Scottish Government's ESSH Review Group had concluded its work.

There was general support from respondents for indicators on tenant and resident safety, although some noted that they did not feel they could comment until we gave more information on the specific indicators we were thinking of including. Some respondents highlighted that these matters are already included in the Scottish Housing Quality Standard or may be difficult to define and operate effectively. There was a strong view, especially amongst landlords, that indicators on damp and mould will need to be carefully developed and defined – a number suggested that we establish a cross-sector working group with appropriate experts to develop these. Respondents highlighted a number of existing indicators which they felt were of limited value.

Taking account of this feedback, and recognising that the Scottish Government's ESSH Review Group has not concluded its work, we decided that there was merit in taking the time to undertake a comprehensive review of the ARC indicators involving relevant experts and people from the social housing sector.

We established two advisory groups, to work with us to consider all of the indicators in the ARC and advise us as we developed appropriate indicators for tenants and resident safety, damp and mould, and ESSH. We have also discussed this with our Tenant Advisors and Tenants Together Scotland. And we have engaged with a range of other stakeholders through a variety of events including conferences and forums facilitated by Tenants Information Service, Scotland's Housing Network, SFHA, APSE Scotland, Scottish Housing Safety Network and our systemically important landlord forum.

As part of our consultation on the revised Regulatory Framework, we proposed to develop and introduce to the ARC specific indicators on tenant and resident safety. This included the development of indicators to monitor landlords' effectiveness in responding to instances of damp and mould. The development of damp and mould indicators posed a challenge as this would be a brand new requirement for landlords.

We carried out additional research to strengthen our understanding of damp and mould. This included a review of 19 social landlords' websites to understand their current approach to both preventing and tackling instances of damp and mould. We reviewed the information and educational materials provided to tenants and the damp and mould policies implemented by each organisation. We also looked at the information these landlords gathered on key performance indicators.

As part of this research, we examined the definitions of damp and mould utilised by social landlords across Scotland. We also had conversations with other relevant regulatory bodies, including the Regulator of Social Housing in England, to understand current practices in relation to damp and mould; and we met with industry experts regarding damp and mould to discuss our approach. We recognise this is a complex area for landlords and would appreciate feedback as part of the consultation around any challenges which landlords may experience in relation to this.

Thank you to everyone who has shared their views on this with us. This feedback has been invaluable and the indicators we are now consulting on have been shaped by this feedback. We have used the input from these discussions to develop a proposed set of indicators to include in a revised ARC which we are now consulting on.

In November 2023, the Scottish Government launched a consultation on a new Social Housing Net Zero Standard (SHNZS) to replace EESSH2. The Scottish Government has not yet published the outcomes from its consultation. Given this, our consultation does not include proposals for indicators on meeting the SHNZS. We will consult on relevant indicators once the SHNZS has been published.

We aim to confirm the revised ARC indicators by January 2025 with the new ARC being in place for collection year 2025/26. In the meantime, we will use the existing ARC for collection year 2024/25 and we will use the Annual Assurance Statements to require landlords to give us specific assurance on their compliance with their tenant and resident safety obligations, including their performance in dealing with instances of damp and mould.

2. Giving us your feedback

We welcome feedback on our proposals from organisations and individuals with an interest in our work. We will continue to meet with stakeholders during the consultation period to discuss our proposals further, as well as considering written responses. You can respond with feedback by Friday 8 November 2024.

We welcome general feedback on our proposals as well as answers to the specific questions we have raised. Please do not feel you have to answer every question unless you wish to do so. If you wish to respond on a question by question basis, you can find a form to use here. Otherwise please email or post your feedback to the address below. Please include your contact details in case we need to check anything with you.

To help make this a transparent process we intend to publish on our website the responses we receive, as we receive them. If you do not wish your response to be made public please let us know. If you are responding as an individual please let us know if you are happy for us to publish your name. You can send your feedback to us by email at: consultations@shr.gov.scot. You can send your feedback to us by post to: Scottish Housing Regulator, 5th floor, 220 High Street, Glasgow G4 0QW. If you have any queries please contact us on the above email address or by calling us on 0141 242 5642.

3. Annual Return on the Charter Indicators: Our proposals

Our discussions with various stakeholders, including the tenants we work with, highlighted there was general support for a number of the indicators we currently collected and that these indicators reflected what tenants considered to be important priorities for them. Stakeholders were also keen to understand the purpose and value of any additional or new indicators. In developing this consultation, we have been mindful of the volume of information we are asking landlords for and have tried to ensure that where there are additional information requests, these are reflected in our risk based approach to regulation.

We set out below a summary of the changes we are proposing to make to the ARC. A full list of the indicators and the changes being proposed are at Annex 1, and we provide a version of the Technical Guidance with our proposals shown in tracked changes at Annex 2. Within this, there are also some indicators where we have provided additional clarity on the definitions following a review of our published FAQs.

General indicators

There are some indicators which we do not routinely use in our regulatory assessment of social landlords' performance. We are proposing to stop collecting the following indicators:

- Indicator 14: Tenancy offers refused during the year. We collect data from Indicator 30 on number lets and average time to re-let and therefore propose to remove indicator 14.
- Indicator 20: Total cost of adaptations completed in the year by source of funding. We collect data from Indicators 19 & 21 on the number of households waiting for adaptations and the average time to complete adaptations. Both of these will continue to provide information on the demand for and extent of adaptation work being carried out in the sector.
- Indicators 23 and 24: Homelessness referrals. Stakeholders told us that these indicators are confusing, onerous to collect and rarely used for benchmarking. We already collect the number of lets made by social landlords at Indicator C2, and are proposing expanding C2 where RSLs will report their lets to homeless households by local authority area. Local authorities' performance in relation to homelessness is collected and published by the Scottish Government.
- C3: Number of lets during the reporting year split between general needs and supported housing. We collect data from Indicator C2 on the lets made by social landlords, broken down by source of let.
- C4: Abandoned homes. We collect data from Indicator 22 on court actions and evictions.

Question 1: Do you agree that we should stop collecting the above indicators?

We propose to amend the following indicators:

- Indicator 10: Reactive repairs completed right first time - Stakeholders told us there are too many recording anomalies across landlords, particularly in relation to what repairs and what timescales are and are not to be included. We are proposing to simplify this indicator by asking landlords to report, of the reactive repairs which were completed, how many were reported again.
- Indicator 15: Anti-social behaviour cases resolved - Stakeholders told us that the current definition means that the cases which were opened in the previous reporting year are not considered, so we are proposing to now include these. We are also proposing to reintroduce measuring whether cases were resolved against locally agreed targets. Stakeholders told us that this indicator does not allow for meaningful benchmarking, so we are proposing to also measure the number of anti-social behaviour cases per 100 homes.
- C2: Lets in the reporting year by source of let - We are proposing that RSLs report their lets to homeless households by local authority area. Stakeholders told us this was important to give an accurate picture as many RSLs house homeless applicants in multiple local authority areas.

Question 2: Do you agree that we should amend the above indicators as outlined?

We also propose to introduce the following indicators:

- Long term voids - We propose to re-introduce the previous ARC indicator 'the number of self-contained properties void at the year end and of those, the number that have been void for more than six months'. This will allow us to collate a sector wide picture of empty properties.

Question 3: Do you agree that we should collect the additional indicators outlined above?

Tenant and resident safety

We propose to continue to collect the following:

- Indicator 11: How many times in the reporting year did you not meet your statutory obligations to complete a gas safety check within 12 months of a gas appliance being fitted or its last check? Stakeholders told us that this indicator is well established, clear and easy to understand.

We also propose to collect:

- Electrical Safety: How many times in the reporting year did you not meet the requirement to complete an electrical safety inspection (EICR) within five years of the last EICR? We are proposing introducing a new indicator to measure any incidences where landlords do not meet the requirement set out in the Tolerable Standard to carry out an EICR within five years of the last EICR. Landlords will be asked to provide a reason/s for any such incidences.

- Fire Safety: Number of homes that do not have ‘satisfactory equipment for detecting fire and giving warning in the event of fire or suspected fire’ installed at the year end. We are proposing introducing a new indicator to measure how many homes do not meet the requirement set out in the Tolerable Standard to install satisfactory smoke and heat alarms. Landlords will be asked to provide a reason/s for any such incidences.

Question 4: Do you agree that we should collect the above additional indicators?

We do not propose to collect specific indicators in relation to social landlord’s legal duties in relation to lift safety, fire risk assessments, asbestos and legionella. Landlords should consider their compliance with these duties through their ongoing assurance processes and notify us through their Annual Assurance Statement of any areas of non-compliance.

Question 5: Do you agree with our proposed approach in relation to the tenant and resident safety issues to be considered in the Annual Assurance Statements?

Issues of damp and mould continue to be an important area of concern for tenants. Most social homes in Scotland are of good quality, but where issues with damp and mould arise, it is important that they are dealt with effectively and quickly. Landlords will want to make sure they understand the prevalence of these issues across their stock and the reasons for this. The root cause of damp and mould can vary and in some cases can be complex. But regardless of the causes, mould spores can pose a danger to health, especially for young children, older people or people with existing skin and respiratory conditions or weaker immune systems. So it is important that landlords have assurance that they are dealing with any reported cases of damp and mould quickly and effectively.

We therefore propose three new indicators on damp and mould:

- Average length of time taken to resolve cases of damp and/or mould;
- Percentage of resolved cases of damp and/or mould that were reopened; and
- Number of open cases of damp and/or mould at the year end.

This would mean landlords would report to us on the following:

- i. Number of cases of damp and/or mould that were resolved within the reporting year
- ii. Number of resolved cases of damp and/or mould that were reopened (within 12 months)

- iii. Total number of working days to resolve cases of damp and/or mould
- iv. Number of open cases of damp and/or mould as at 31 March each year.

Question 6: Do you agree with the additional indicators we propose to collect in relation to damp and mould?

Question 7: Do you agree with the proposal to collect the “Average length of time taken to resolve cases of damp and/or mould” or would the “median” be more appropriate to measure the time to resolve cases of damp and/or mould?

Question 8: Are the new indicators we propose on damp and mould clearly defined?

4. Impact Assessments

We have considered the wider potential impacts that our proposals could have on tenants, people who are homeless, other service users and landlords as part of our wider review of our regulatory framework and have carried out an internal Equalities Impact Assessment which we will review at the conclusion of the consultation.

5. What happens next?

Once we have reflected on your feedback, we will publish final versions of the Charter indicators in a revised Technical Guidance and list of FAQs. We aim to publish these in January 2025, to allow social landlords to start collecting the data from 1 April 2025.

ADVISORY GUIDANCE FOR SOCIAL LANDLORDS

SCOTTISH SOCIAL HOUSING CHARTER TECHNICAL GUIDANCE FOR LANDLORDS

DRAFT FOR CONSULTATION

SEPTEMBER 2024

Introduction

The Scottish Social Housing Charter was first introduced by the Scottish Government in March 2012. It sets the standards and outcomes that all social landlords should aim to achieve when performing their housing activities.

Landlords must provide accurate information on the Charter indicators and contextual indicators to us through their Annual Return on the Charter (ARC).

The ARC should contain information based on the year up to the end of March 31st of the year of submission. This guidance aims to help landlords with their submission. The first return that landlords will make based on this guidance will be April 2025 to March 2026.

This guidance may not cover every scenario that a landlord may encounter when collating information for the ARC. Where there is any uncertainty on what to submit, please:

- refer to the FAQs on our website; and/or
- take a common sense approach. You may wish to make us aware of your approach in the comments boxes. We encourage you to use the comments boxes when providing commentary; and/or
- contact us at shr@shr.gov.scot .

Data accuracy

It is landlords' responsibility to ensure that the data they give us is accurate. Landlords should, as a matter of course for their own internal audit or for their performance management systems, retain the calculations and workings for the ARC. This evidence should be readily available to provide assurance about the accuracy and reliability of the reported data.

How we use and interpret the data

We take a wide approach to analysing the data submitted to us such as considering other related indicators, reviewing comments boxes and contacting landlords for clarification.

We know that some landlords will want to collect other data as part of their internal performance management monitoring.

We say more about how we gather, publish and use data in our Regulatory Framework.

RSL Governing Body approval

Before you submit the ARC to us, your full Governing Body or the delegated sub-committee must review and approve the information in it. If it is approved by a sub-committee then you should provide your full Governing Body with a complete copy at its next meeting.

Local Authority approval

The chief officer responsible for housing in the authority should review and approve the ARC before submission.

Satisfaction surveys

There are a range of approaches and methods that landlords can adopt when undertaking surveys. Landlords should do this at least every three years. Landlords can provide context to their tenants and other service users when seeking their views. Please see our conducting surveys of tenants and service users advisory guidance.

Feedback

Contact us at shr@shr.gov.scot if you have any suggestions on how this guidance or the FAQs could be improved. We will review the guidance each year and take any feedback into account. We may review the FAQs more frequently.

SHR Calculation	To calculate the indicator we will divide: (ii) number of reactive repairs completed right first time that were reported again during the reporting year. By: (i) the total number of reactive repairs completed during the reporting year. Multiply by 100.

Indicator 11	How many times in the reporting year did you not meet your statutory obligation to complete a gas safety check within 12 months of a gas appliance being fitted or last checked.
CLARITY	(i) The number of times you did not meet the requirement set out in The Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 Section 36(3)a (as amended) to ensure that each appliance and flue is checked for safety within 12 months of being installed and at intervals of not more than 12 months since it was last checked for safety. At all times landlords should follow the latest Gas Safety Regulations first and foremost. Landlords must ensure that they meet these obligations.
Definition	Gas safety records All landlords are required by the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 to maintain gas fittings and flues in tenanted homes in a safe condition and carry out safety checks for appliances and flues at intervals of not more than twelve months. The Regulations on safety checks do not apply when a house is unoccupied. MOT style certification – Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 (GSIUR) as amended. Approved Code of Practice and guidance (hse.gov.uk) The 5th edition of the HSE guidance allows for renewal dates to be maintained if certificates are issued within the two months before the expiry date of a certificate Unoccupied Property For empty houses landlords must ensure that all appliances/flues are safe and have an up to date gas safety check record provided for the new tenants before they move in. For mortgage to rent properties, if the tenant (former owner) has a valid certificate this is acceptable. If not, the landlord should provide a certificate at the tenancy start as the norm. Capped installations/ gas supply Where gas installations or gas supply have been capped, the document detailing that the installations/supply were capped should be treated as a gas safety record purely for the purposes of this indicator.

Inclusions/ exclusions	Do not include: Non-residential properties that require a gas safety record, such as offices or other non-domestic premises.

Indicator 12	Percentage of tenants who have had repairs or maintenance carried out in last 12 months satisfied with the repairs and maintenance service.
	In relation to tenant satisfaction with the repairs service provided for those with a repair carried out in the reporting year please state: 12.1 Of the tenants who had repairs carried out in the year, how many answered the question: "Thinking about the LAST time you had repairs carried out how satisfied or dissatisfied were you with the repairs service provided by your landlord" 12.2 Of the tenants who answered how many said they were: 12.2.1 very satisfied 12.2.2 fairly satisfied 12.2.3 neither satisfied nor dissatisfied 12.2.4 fairly dissatisfied 12.2.5 very dissatisfied
Definition	Please provide your most up to date data only Repairs or maintenance carried out in this indicator refer only to reactive repairs. Reactive repairs Is a repair which cannot be planned or included in a repair programme. 'Last time' The most recent occasion when the tenant had repairs carried out in their property. Survey guidance The question should be asked of all tenants. This will allow landlords to carry out analysis of the whole sample to inform their own service improvement. However, in the statistical return, the results should be based on only those tenants who said they have had repairs carried out in the last 12 months. This information can be collected as part of a comprehensive survey or by collating feedback which is collected throughout the year using existing feedback tools. The guidance provides fuller explanation as to the methods landlords could use to collect/report this indicator.

	Should be included alongside other questions about repairs and maintenance (including indicator 7).
Inclusions/ exclusions	Ensure to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> only tenants who have had repairs carried out in the last 12 months.
SHR Calculation	To calculate the indicator we will divide: 12.2.1 number responding very satisfied plus 12.2.2 number responding fairly satisfied. By: 12.1 number of tenants who responded as having had repairs carried out in last 12 months. Multiply by 100.

Indicator 13	Percentage of tenants satisfied with the landlord's contribution to the management of the neighbourhood they live in.
	(i) Number of tenants who were asked: ' Overall, how satisfied or dissatisfied are you with your landlord's contribution to the management of the neighbourhood you live in? ' (ii) Number who responded: (a) very satisfied (b) fairly satisfied (c) neither satisfied nor dissatisfied (d) fairly dissatisfied (e) very dissatisfied
Definition	Please provide your most up to date data only Neighbourhood The area that the landlord has defined as having some responsibility for.
SHR Calculation	To calculate the indicator, we will divide: (ii)(a) number responding very satisfied + (b) number responding fairly satisfied. By: (i) number of tenants who responded to the question. Multiply by 100.

Indicator 14	Percentage of tenancy offers refused during the year.
REMOVE	(i) Number of tenancy offers made during the reporting year. (ii) The number of tenancy offers that were refused.
Definition	Tenancy offer When an applicant is offered in writing a particular property. The offer may be either a SST or short SST. Refusal

	Any situation other than an accepted offer.
Inclusions/ exclusions	Do not include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Multiple requests for expression of interest; and • Verbal offers Ensure to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All refused offers of tenancy; • Multiple refusals on one property; • No response to offers; and • Withdrawn offers
SHR Calculation	To calculate the indicator, we will divide: (ii) the number of tenancy offers that were refused. By: (i) number of tenancy offers made during the reporting year. Multiply by 100.

Indicator 15	Percentage of anti-social behaviour cases reported in the last year which were resolved within target.
AMEND	(i) Number of cases of anti-social behaviour reported in the last year. (ii) Number of cases of anti-social behaviour carried over from previous reporting years Of those at (i) and (ii): (iii) Number of cases resolved within locally agreed targets in the last year. (iv) Total self-contained units
Definition	Anti-social behaviour (ASB) As per Part 13 of the Anti-Social Behaviour (Scotland) Act 2004 this is defined as 'A person who acts in a manner that causes or is likely to cause alarm or distress or pursue a course of conduct that causes or is likely to cause alarm or distress, to at least one person who is not of the same household'. Resolved <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • where the landlord has taken appropriate measures, as set out in its ASB policies and procedures, to address the cause of the anti-social behaviour complaint and has advised the complainant of the outcome; or • where the landlord does not have the authority or powers to resolve and it has provided a full explanation of the landlord's position to the complainant. Locally agreed target timescale Timescales set by the landlord, following consultation with its tenants, for managing their range of anti-social behaviour cases. It is acceptable for timescales to vary depending on the severity of the anti-social behaviour.

	A case <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A case is opened when a tenant or service user or another organisation/body reports an incident of ASB to the landlord. • A case can be made up of a single report/complaint of ASB; or • Multiple reports/complaints about the same party, made whilst a case is still ongoing. Such further reports/complaints would not be counted as a further new case. • Once a case is resolved and a further report/complaint of ASB is received, this should be treated as a new case.
Inclusions/exclusions	Ensure to include as a new case: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A closed case where a further service request is received Ensure to include as resolved: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cases resolved in the reporting year which were reported in the previous reporting year
SHR Calculation	To calculate the indicator, we will divide: (iii) number of cases resolved within locally agreed targets in the last year. By: (i) and (ii) number of cases of anti-social behaviour reported in the last year plus number of cases if anti-social behaviour carried forward from the previous reporting year. Multiply by 100 to get percentage of cases of anti-social behaviour resolved within locally agreed targets. And (iv) landlord's total self-contained units divided by 100 to get x and then (i) and (ii) added together to get y and then y divided by x = number of cases of anti-social behaviour per 100 properties

Indicator 16	Percentage of new tenancies sustained for more than a year, by source of let.
	(i) Number of tenancies commenced during the previous reporting year by source of let: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) existing tenants; (b) applicants who have been assessed as statutory homeless by the local authority; (c) applicants from your housing list; (d) nominations from local authority (RSLs only); (e) other. (ii) By source of lets (a) - (e), how many new tenants at (i) remained in their tenancy for more than a year?
Definition	Tenancy Sustainment Of those tenants who commenced a tenancy in the year prior to the current reporting year what percentage as at 31 March for the reporting year, remained in their tenancy a year later. Joint tenancies transferring to a single tenancy and vice versa should be counted as remaining in the tenancy. Remained in their tenancy

	Tenancies ended as a result of any of the following would not count as having remained in the original tenancy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mutual exchange. • Succession. • Assignment / Transfer A person is counted as having remained in their tenancy for a year or more where the tenancy start date plus 365 days has been achieved. Short SSTs Where full SSTs are granted following on from a short SSTs these should be counted as a continuing tenancy.
Inclusions/ exclusions	Ensure to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • only those tenancies that commenced in the year prior to the current reporting year when calculating the length of tenancy.
SHR Calculation	The following calculations will be applied: By source of lets (ii) (a) - (e), how many new tenants at (i) remained in their tenancy for more than a year? Divided by: (i) number of tenancies commenced during the previous reporting year by source of let: Multiplied by 100.

Indicator 17	Percentage of lettable houses that became vacant in the last year.
CLARITY	(i) The number of empty dwellings that arose during the last year in self-contained lettable stock.
Definition	Vacant The number of normal lettable self-contained dwellings that became empty during the last reporting year. For example, the number of tenancies that have ended or been repossessed during the reporting year. You should use the definition of a void as outlined in the “Terms we use in this document” when determining whether a property should be counted.
Inclusions/ exclusions	Do not include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • properties which continue to be void from a previous reporting year; • properties re-let during the current reporting year where the void commenced in the previous year; and • mutual exchanges, successions, assignments and temporary accommodation ‘flipped’ to a secure tenancy. Ensure to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • all self-contained dwellings which became empty over the starting and end of the reporting year, regardless to whether the property is still empty or has been let.

SHR Calculation	To calculate the indicator, we will divide: (i) the number of empty dwellings that arose during the last year in your self-contained lettable stock. By: (ii) the total number of lettable self-contained stock (as calculated at indicator C17). Multiply by 100.

Indicator 18	Percentage of rent due lost through properties being empty during the last year.
CLARITY	(i) The total amount of rent due for the reporting year. (ii) The total amount of rent lost through properties being empty during the reporting year.
Definition	The total amount of rent due The total annual charges levied by the landlord in respect of rent and service charges for all dwellings. Subject to the exclusions listed below. The rent loss for an empty property in relation to a new let is the amount of lost rental income (including services charges) for the time – measured in calendar days – from the date of handover to the landlord following the issue of the certificate of practical completion and the start date of the first tenancy. Subject to the exclusions listed below. The rent loss for an empty property for a re-let is the amount of lost rental income (including services charges) for the time – measured in calendar days – between the date of termination of a previous tenancy or repossession and the start date of a new tenancy. Subject to the exclusions listed below.
Inclusions/exclusions	When calculating the total rent due and the rent loss do not include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lock-ups and garages • Sharing owners • Properties used for temporary homeless lets • Leased properties • Rent (including services charges) for periods when properties are empty subject to an insurance claim being raised because of fire or flood damage • Rent for properties where the keys are held by the Police to assist with their investigation • Empty properties awaiting or undergoing major repairs/structural work during which period it would be unsafe for them to be occupied. (N.B. SHR Calculation	To calculate the indicator, we will divide: (i) the total amount of rent due for the reporting year. By: (ii) the total amount of rent lost through properties being empty during the reporting year. Multiply by 100.

Indicator 19	The number of households currently waiting for adaptations to their home.
CLARITY	(i) The total number of approved applications on the list for adaptations as at the start of the reporting year, plus any new approved applications during the reporting year. (ii) The number of approved applications completed between the start and end of the reporting year. (iii) The total number of households waiting for applications to be completed at the end of the reporting year.
Definition	Applications An application relates to one household and there may be more than one adaptation on an application. This indicator counts the number of households, not the number of adaptations. The application is classed as approved from the date of the outcome of an assessment by the appropriate department/person. Adaptations A collective term for a broad range of products and changes to the fabric of a building that enable people of all ages to carry out ordinary activities of daily life that have been affected by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • impairment; • ill health; • traumatic injury; or • the effects of ageing.

	This includes assistive technology Waiting for an adaptation The start point for a 'wait' is when the housing service receives a referral e.g. from social work or an occupational therapist. Referrals can come from a range of sources including members of staff. The end point is when the adaptations work is completed.
Inclusion/ exclusions	Do not include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> stage 2 adaptations as these are completed during construction of the property; or adaptations carried out on properties which are not owned by the landlord (e.g. adaptations carried out by the council in privately owned properties). Ensure to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> only applications where all adaptations have been completed; adaptations to the property for any member of the household; all outstanding applications brought forward from the last reporting year when calculating the number completed; and if 19(iii) does not equal 19(i) minus 19(ii) add a note in the comments field.
SHR Calculation	The following calculation will be applied: The number of households currently waiting for adaptations to their home 19(iii) = 19(i) minus 19(ii).

Indicator	Average annual management fee per factored property.
28	(i) Number of residential properties factored.
CLARITY	(ii) Total value of management fees invoiced to factored owners in the reporting year.
Definition	Property factored A property is factored where a landlord is responsible for the delivery of a management service to the owner of the property. Management fee This is the charge a landlord levies on an owner to cover the cost of administering the delivery of services. Such management fees may be invoiced on behalf of a landlord by other organisations, including unregistered subsidiaries or by outsourcing to third parties. This should exclude VAT. Factored owners

Indicator 30 CLARITY	Average length of time taken to re-let properties in the last year. (i) The total number of properties re-let in the reporting year. (ii) The total number of calendar days properties were empty.
Definition	Lets Lettings in this context are lets to individual tenants. Properties leased during the year to other organisations (i.e. to Social Work Department) should not be recorded as a let in this part of the return. The houses may be managed by the landlord itself or by an agent on its behalf. A re-let A property where the previous tenancy has ended, or the property has been repossessed and a new tenancy has commenced. Houses remaining empty at the end of the year are to be included in the following year's return when they are let. Time taken to re-let This is measured in calendar days, between the date of termination of a previous tenancy or repossession (i.e. the first date from which the rent loss is charged to voids) and the start date of a new tenancy (i.e. the last date from which the rent loss is charged to voids) subject to the exclusions listed below:

Indicator C1	Staff information, staff turnover and sickness rates (RSLs only) A – Chief Executive / Senior Officer / Director (i) Name of Chief Executive (System generated, RSL needs to contact SHR to update changes of Chief Executive position) B – Staff employed by the RSL (i) Number of senior staff. (ii) Number of office based staff. (iii) Number of care / support staff. (iv) Number of concierge staff. (v) Number of direct labour staff. C – Staff turnover and sickness absence (i) Percentage of senior staff turnover in the year to the end of the reporting year. (ii) Percentage of total staff turnover in the year to the end of the reporting year. (iii) Percentage of days lost through staff sickness absence in the reporting year.
Definition	Staff employed by RSL B (i)-(v) Permanent or temporary staff employed by the RSL or by any of its subsidiaries as at 31 March each year which carry out duties for the RSL. The number of senior staff must only be counted at B (i). The number of staff should be reported in terms of full-time equivalents (FTE). For example, if the hours of two people working part-time are added together that might be the same as one full-time job. Senior staff Senior staff are chief executives, directors and section heads or other posts seen as senior within the organisation. Senior staff turnover This is the number of senior staff that left in the year as a percentage of senior staff. Total staff turnover This is the number of all staff that left in the year as a percentage of total staff. Days lost D(iii) This means the percentage of the total working days available for the groups of employees which are lost through sickness absence in your organisation.

Working patterns often vary both between and within organisations. However, each period of work (working day, day shift or night shift) should be measured as one unit (that is, counted as one day). Part time employees should be treated in the same way. For example, where an employee works four hours per day that should be counted as a unit of work (one day). So, if an organisation has 1,000 full-time staff and 500 part-time staff, the number of working days is $(224 \times 1,000) + (224 \times 500)$. The 224 working days appears in the example at the end of these definitions.

Periods of sickness

These periods should be recorded in whole days or units of work; sickness leave for just part of a day or work period should not be included. Only days which form part of an employee's normal working week should be counted as sick leave.

Sickness absence

Sickness absence is defined as an absence from the place of employment because of the employee's illness or injury for which sick leave entitlement is used. This may include self-certification, absence supported by a doctor's certificate, long-term sickness absence and industrial injury. You should not include authorised absences which are not sickness absences, such as compassionate leave, career leave and special leave/unpaid leave, maternity and paternity leave, and maternity support.

Employees who work for periods of less than a complete month during the year should not be included in your answer.

Complete month

A complete month means the period between a date in one month and the immediately preceding date in the following month (for example, 15 February to 14 March inclusive).

Working days

Working days can, depending on local circumstances, vary between organisations. For example, because of the number of local public holidays employees receive. The number of working days should exclude weekends (except for employees who work these periods as part of their normal working week), public holidays and local holidays, rest days and annual leave.

Here is an example of a calculation of working days available per year:

Example	Full-time and part-time employees	Temporary employees
Base	365 days	92 days
Less:
Weekends	104 days	26 days

	<table border="1"> <tr> <td>Annual leave</td> <td>25 days</td> <td>5 days</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Public / local holidays</td> <td>12 days</td> <td>1 day</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Working days per year</td> <td>224 days</td> <td>60 days</td> </tr> </table>	Annual leave	25 days	5 days	Public / local holidays	12 days	1 day	Working days per year	224 days	60 days
Annual leave	25 days	5 days
Public / local holidays	12 days	1 day
Working days per year	224 days	60 days
	Temporary employees Organisations manage their temporary employees in different ways. In the example above, we have included annual leave. However, your organisation may not allow a temporary employee to take annual leave during the period they have been contracted to work and may pay them for this instead. For example, an employee contracted to work for three months would normally be entitled to five days annual leave (that is, pro rata to full-time staff entitlement of 20 days per year).
Inclusions/ exclusions	Do not include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • agency staff; • staff employed by any of the RSL’s subsidiaries who do not carry out duties for the RSL. Ensure to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • staff employed by any of the RSL’s subsidiaries who carry out duties for the RSL.
SHR Calculation	To calculate the ‘total number of staff’ we will add B(i), (ii), (ii), (iv) and (v).
RSL Calculation	The RSL will calculate the ‘staff turnover and sickness absence’ at (C) by applying the following calculations: C(i) The turnover of senior staff should be calculated as a percentage of the total senior staff the RSL employs - as calculated by the system. C(ii) Total staff turnover total staff figures should be calculated as a percentage of the total staff the RSL employs - as reported in B(vi). C(iii) The percentage of working days lost through absences because of staff sickness is: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) sickness absence (in working days). Terms we use in this document

Abandonment Procedures

As prescribed in the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001, section 18, a landlord wishing to take possession of a house under section 17(4) must serve on the tenant a notice,

(a) stating that the landlord has reason to believe that the house is unoccupied and that the tenant does not intend to occupy it as the tenant's home;

(b) requiring the tenant to inform the landlord in writing within 4 weeks of service of the notice if the tenant intends to occupy the house as the tenant's home; and

(c) informing the tenant that, if it appears to the landlord at the end of that period that the tenant does not intend so to occupy the house, the tenancy will be terminated with immediate effect.

Arrears

Rent that is lawfully due and is unpaid by current and former tenants.

Arrears write-off

Landlords will have their own individual policies on irrecoverable debt and how they deal with this.

There are a number of key reasons why a landlord may wish to write-off a debt. These may include:

- The debt is uneconomical to collect (i.e. the cost of collection is greater than the value of the debt).
- The debt is time barred, where the statute of limitation applies. Generally, this means that if a period of five years has elapsed since the debt was last demanded the debt cannot be enforced by legal action.
- The debtor cannot be found or communicated with despite all reasonable attempts to trace the debtor.
- The debtor is deceased and there is no likely settlement from the estate or next of kin.
- Hardship, where permitted, on the grounds that recovery of the debt is likely to cause the debtor serious financial difficulty.
- Insolvency where the organisation or person has gone into bankruptcy and there are no assets to claim against.

Assignment

Where landlord consents to a tenant signing over their tenancy to another party (i.e. spouse). Section 32 of the Housing (Scotland) 2001 Act defines the approach that landlords should take on assignments.

Choice Based Lettings (CBL)

A system where available properties are advertised by a landlord and applicants submit bids for homes they are interested in, that are suitable for their needs.

Common Housing Register (CHR)

A system where a single application can be completed allowing applicants to be considered for social rented housing from a range of landlords participating in the CHR.

Complaints

A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction by one or more members of the public about an organisation's action or lack of action, or about the standard or service provided by or on behalf of the organisation

Flipping

Where a temporary placement in temporary accommodation is 'flipped' to a secure tenancy.

Housing list

A register of applicants and tenants who have applied for housing with a particular landlord.

Landlord

For the purpose of this return a landlord is a 'social landlord', as defined in section 165 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010, as 'a registered social landlord (RSL), local authority (LA) landlord or a local authority which provides housing services'.

Lettable and unlettable stock

For the purpose of this return, lettable stock includes all:

- dwellings owned and managed by the landlord; and
- dwellings owned by the landlord but managed by a another organisation

Lettable stock does not include:

- stock managed by the landlord on behalf of another body;
- any properties originally developed for partial or outright sale (for example, improvement for sale, shared ownership, shared equity, equity sharing);
- properties held for use as decants (which should be included as unlettable stock); or
- wardens' and caretakers' accommodation, tied housing.

Unlettable stock

This is the number of self-contained and non-self-contained properties which at the end of the reporting year are not actively being re-let due to:

- an insurance claim because of fire or flood damage;
- awaiting or undergoing major repairs/structural work during which period it would be unsafe for it to be occupied;

- houses are held for decanting tenants;
- reasonable time taken to clear the house following a tenant's death as per your policy and procedures;
- keys being held by the Police to assist with their investigation; or
- properties are empty and subject to a Governing Body/ Sub-Committee/Council decision that they are not to be let because they are to be transferred, reconfigured or disposed. of/demolished or are surplus to long term requirements.

Low cost home ownership

(including shared equity / shared ownership) are properties built for sale through Scottish Government funded schemes such as the low cost investment for first time buyers scheme (LIFT) which helps people on low incomes purchase their own homes. This covers the open market shared equity scheme and the new supply shared equity schemes.

Mid market rent

Properties not let under a SST and rented at a rate that is higher than the rent charged for social housing properties, but below that charged in the local market for private rented properties.

Mortgage to rent

A scheme supported by the Scottish Government to prevent homelessness through mortgage repayment default. An owner sells their home to a landlord which then rents it back to them.

Mutual exchange

Where two tenants (whether or not from the same landlord) exchange homes and tenancies. Section 33 of the 2001 Act allows for mutual exchanges and defines the circumstances under which landlords can refuse them.

New let

This is a property which is let for the first time following receipt of a certificate of practical completion. The houses may be managed by a landlord or by an agent on its behalf.

Properties acquired through mortgage to rent scheme or stock transfer should not be reported as new lets on first time of letting.

Occupancy agreement

An arrangement that allows a person to occupy a property or part of a property for an agreed length of time stating any conditions of occupancy that apply. For example, an agreement to rent a room in a group home run by a landlord, where communal rooms are shared with other people.

Parent organisation

For the purpose of this return a parent organisation is the landlord that holds or controls one or more subsidiaries.

Reactive repairs

These are repairs which cannot be planned or included in a repair programme.

Reactive repairs - Emergency repairs

Repairs necessary to prevent serious damage to the building, danger to health, risk to safety or risk of serious loss or damage to the occupier's property.

Reactive repairs - Emergency repairs completion time

Procedures for dealing with emergency repairs differ across landlords. Depending on local factors and the nature of the repair the matter may be put right straight away or a two part approach may be taken by first attending or making safe. Landlords will have their own target times to match their procedures and it is not for SHR to participate in local choices made by landlords in consultation with their tenants. However, SHR needs assurance that emergency situations are put right promptly and that the 'emergency' nature of a repair is resolved quickly. Any remaining work then falls into the category of a non-emergency repair.

Therefore, for the purpose of this return the time taken to complete an emergency repair should be measured as the time expressed in hours between the earliest time a request is received by the landlord (from either the tenant or a repairs inspector) until completion of the work necessary to remove the emergency nature of the repair. This may mean either a repair to make safe or a permanent repair to resolve the issue.

By 'made safe' we mean a repair necessary to prevent injury to the occupier or to prevent further damage to the building.

Reactive repairs - Non emergency repairs

Any remaining repairs which do not fall into the category of emergency repair.

Reactive repairs - Non emergency completion time

The time taken to complete all other non-emergency repairs should be measured as the time expressed in working days between the earliest date or time a request is received by the landlord (from either the tenant or a repairs inspector) until completion of the work necessary to fix the repair issue to the satisfaction of the landlord.

Re-let

A re-let is a property where the previous tenancy has ended and a new tenancy has commenced. Only properties that were re-let during the reporting year are to be included. Houses remaining empty at the end of the year are to be included in the following year's return.

Reporting year

For the purpose of this return a reporting year means the period beginning on 1st April (or for financial indicators, the first day of the landlord's accounting year), and ending on 31st March of the following year (or for financial indicators, the last day of the landlord's accounting year).

RSL Governing Body

When we refer to the governing body, we mean the management committee or board of management of an RSL.

SHQS - Scottish Housing Quality Standard (the Standard)

The return monitors progress towards the Standard as defined by the Scottish Government. The Scottish Government's guidance on the Standard and the policy on exemptions and abeyances can be found on its website.

The Scottish Government has published clarification on exactly which types of properties are included in the SHQS target. This is available in Annex I of the Scottish Government SHQS guidance.

In general, social housing within scope of SHQS for the purposes of the 2015 target are self-contained homes, which include a full range of facilities for the use of occupiers. They are provided for the purpose of social rents and usually subject to tenancy agreements based on the model agreement for secure tenancies.

SHQS - Abeyance

An abeyance is a type of exemption. As outlined in the Scottish Government's Guidance Annex I, this can arise when work cannot be done for 'social' reasons relating to tenants' or owner-occupiers' behaviour (for example, where owner occupiers in a mixed ownership block for common elements of SHQS such as roofs, hallways, etc. do not wish to pay for their share).

SHQS - Cloned data

Full survey data which has been copied from a specific property type to properties where survey data is missing based on similar characteristics – age, construction, size, flat/house, street, scheme, etc. Cloned data should be replaced with actual survey data once an SHQS assessment has been carried out. Cloned data can help to provide a reasonable assessment of overall stock compliance where actual survey data is missing.

SHQS - Compliance

Housing stock within the scope of the SHQS should be assessed for compliance against all 55 elements (where applicable). Elements will be classified as being either a pass, a fail, exempt or in abeyance.

SHQS compliance relates to properties that fully pass the Standard. Not all property types can be assessed against all 55 elements. For example, non-applicable elements could be door entry systems in houses or flats with private access or loft insulation in ground floor flats.

SHQS - Criterion / Element

The SHQS is a set of five broad housing criteria which must all be met if the property is to pass SHQS. These criteria, in turn, consist of 55 elements and nine sub-elements against which properties need to be measured.

The Scottish Government provides guidance on how to measure each element and the pass requirements.

SHQS - Exemption

A property can only be classified as an exemption, if it passes all other elements of the SHQS. Properties with a combination of failing and exempt elements should be reported as a fail. The Scottish Government provides guidance on exemptions which is available at Annex I.

SHQS - Failing the Standard

A property failing the Standard will fail at least one primary element or two secondary elements from the Free from Serious Disrepair criterion or at least one element from any of the other criteria.

SHQS - Meeting the Standard

Stock within the scope of the SHQS that pass all 55 elements and have no elements failing, exempt or in abeyance, in line with the Scottish Government's guidance which details how a pass should be measured.

Scottish secure tenancy (SST) and Short (SST)

Under the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001 (the 2001 Act) a tenancy will only be a Scottish secure tenancy (SST) if:

- the house is let as a separate dwelling;
- the tenant is an individual and the house is the tenant's only or principal home;
- the landlord is a local authority landlord, a registered social landlord (RSL), or a water or sewerage authority;

- where the landlord is an RSL which is a co-operative housing association, the tenant is a member of the association; and
- the tenancy was created on or after such date as specified by order or before that date if of a description specified by order.

In prescribed circumstances a SST can be converted to a SSST.

In specifically defined circumstances set by the 2001 Act, social landlords are able, but not obliged, to offer a short SST instead. The basic conditions for the short SST to apply are that:

- it would have been an SST otherwise;
- it is for 6 months or more; and
- the landlord has served a notice on the prospective tenant that this type of tenancy will be offered.

The circumstances in which a short SST may be used are set out in 1-7 of Schedule 6 to the 2001 Act, but Scottish Ministers may modify this list by order.

Further guidance and model agreements are available on the Scottish Government website.

Section 5 referral

A request from a local authority issued to an RSL, under Section 5 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001, to provide housing within a reasonable time, usually within six weeks, to applicants assessed as statutorily homeless.

Self-contained stock

A unit is self-contained if it has the exclusive use of a bath/shower, inside WC and cooking facilities.

The apartment size of a property is based on counting only the number of bedrooms and living/dining rooms. Kitchens, bathrooms, toilets and utility rooms are not counted (for example, a 1-apt is a bed-sit, a 2 apt is one-bedroom dwelling with a living room, and a 3-apt is 2-bedroom dwelling with a living room etc).

Service Charges

Costs, in addition to rental charges, levied against a property for communal services

Shared Ownership

Landlord run scheme to encourage those who cannot afford outright ownership, but who can afford more than an affordable rent, to become part owners. The private owner must buy at least 25% of the value of the house initially, but can buy more later. An occupancy charge is paid on the portion of the house remaining in the landlord's ownership. The sharing owner is responsible for all maintenance to their home.

Social letting

Properties rented as Scottish secure tenancies (SSTs) or short SSTs.

Source of let

Lets to existing tenants, which include:

- Lets to those who were already tenants in one of the landlord's properties, who applied through one of the landlord's housing lists (this covers all lists, for example, waiting/transfer lists) or common housing registers.
- Lets to people who were assessed by the LA as statutory homeless and to whom the LA has a duty to provide permanent housing.
- Housing list applicants. This is lets to people who were on the landlord's housing list or common housing register who were not existing tenants. Section 5 referrals or LA nominations must be excluded.
- Local authority nominations, with the exception of those assessed by the LA as statutory homeless to whom it has a duty to provide permanent accommodation. It may include those whom the LA has assessed as homeless but to whom it has no duty to secure permanent accommodation.

- Other lets, include lets made which are not covered by the above (e.g. referrals from other agencies or groups). Ukrainian refugees given a SST or SSST should be included unless one of the other sources are applicable.

Stage 2 adaptations

Adaptations to properties at new build stage.

Subsidiary

Under Section 82 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001 a subsidiary is a company with respect to which one of the following conditions is fulfilled:

- the landlord is a member of the company and controls the composition of the board of directors;
- the landlord holds more than half in nominal value of the company's equity share capital;
- the company is a subsidiary, within the meaning of the Companies Act 1985 (c.6) or the Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968 (c.55), of another company which, by virtue of paragraph

(a) or (b), is itself a subsidiary of the landlord.

Succession

Where a landlord awards a tenancy to a member of the household on the tenant's death. Section 22 of the Housing (Scotland) 2001 Act sets down the rules governing succession.

Temporary accommodation

For the purpose of this return, temporary accommodation is the type of accommodation made available to a homeless applicant for a limited period of time in order to:

- give the landlord time to investigate and assess a homeless application;
- give the applicant a reasonable opportunity to find alternative accommodation for their self;
- give the landlord a reasonable opportunity to find permanent accommodation for the applicant.

Tenancies – General needs lets

~~Lets for people who do not need any special support.~~

Tenancies – Supported housing

~~Lets for sheltered tenancies (where the main form of support provided is a warden service and/or an emergency call service, connecting each house to a warden system) and very sheltered and other supported tenancies (this~~

~~refers to all other tenancies where some form of support is provided to allow the tenants to live independently in the community).~~

Transfer

A transfer is when a tenant has been re-housed by its landlord in another of the landlord's properties.

Void

A void is a property owned by a landlord which has no tenant, and it is held on the Housing Revenue Account (HRA), for Local authorities, or the Income and Expenditure Account, for RSLs. A property may be counted as void on more than one occasion during the year.

Void period

The void period is the time, measured in calendar days, between the date of termination of a previous tenancy or the date the property was repossessed to the start date of a new tenancy.

Mutual exchanges, successions and other transfers are not to be reported as void properties.
